Notes from Mrs. Martin

We will finish chapter 2 in math and the children will take their test on Tuesday and Wednesday next week.

The children are off to a great start this year and have been working very hard. I wanted to let you know that I will not be at school next week. My husband and I will be on a cruise to celebrate our 20th Wedding Anniversary. It's very hard for me to leave the children, but I know they will continue to work hard for the sub that will be here next week.
